

Best 'Best Friends'

NARRATION:

Of all the new friends Myro was making in Australia, Gigi the Gyrocopter was his absolute favourite. They were both very small, they had both moved to Australia from another country and, most importantly of all, they both loved to fly whenever they could. They had hit it off right from the start. On days like today they liked nothing better than to zoom through the sky, chasing each other through the clouds and performing acrobatics in the air.
