NARRATION:

At the Flying Club, Myro's new friends Cyclo the Cessna, Hyli the Helicopter and Gigi the Gyrocopter greeted him with a colourful 'Welcome to Australia' party. They had filled the hanger with streamers and balloons and Myro felt very important that they had gone to so much trouble just for him. "I must think of a special way to thank them", Myro thought happily as he raced down the runway and took off behind Gigi. Far below them, Myro could see strange creatures bouncing along on their back legs.
